ABOUT THE FUND

- The fund intends to benefit from the difference in pricing in cash and futures market. An arbitrage opportunity prevails when one buys a stock in the cash market and sells it at a higher price in the futures market so as to lock-in the potential gain.
- Baroda BNP Paribas Arbitrage Fund aims to generate long-term capital growth primarily by using arbitrage strategy in equity markets and also invests a small component in short-term fixed income instruments.
- The fund follows an arbitrage strategy with a "market neutral" approach. The portfolio allocation is as follows:
  - Arbitrage: This is the predominant strategy employed which is made in cash - future arbitrage opportunities. Additionally the portfolio will invest in stocks and hedge the same with short index futures of similar weight (to the extent of the long portfolio). While there is an imperfect hedge at play (values are matched), there is no directional view taken on markets.
  - Fixed Income: Up to 35% would be invested in debt and money market instruments with maturity up to 91 days only and/or units of liquid fund.

PORTFOLIO POSITIONING

- January series ends on a weak note, Nifty dips by -1.6% while Bank Nifty declines by -3.7%
- The sectors that settled in green are IT Index (up by 4.7%), Auto Index (2.6%), and Metal Index (0.2%) whereas underperformer against Nifty are Media (-5.4%) and PSU Bank (-5.0%).

Equity component:

- There is no directional equity exposure in the portfolio and has completely hedged arbitrage positions.
- Currently the fund has no long-short positions.

Fixed income component:

- Fixed income exposure is 33.5% for the month ended Jan 2023.
- 100% of the fixed income exposure is deployed in SOV and TREPs.
